

WHAT ARE EXPUNCTIONS?

Expunctions remove past dismissed charges and convictions of misdemeanors and minor felonies on eligible criminal records by a court order. Without pro bono volunteers, these would otherwise appear on background checks when applying for housing and employment.

MECKLENBURG
ACCESS TO JUSTICE
CAMPAIGN

Janessa, Expunction Client and CPCC Graduate

PRO BONO EXPECTATIONS:

Before: The Advocacy Center staff determines case eligibility. We only refer eligible clients.

During: Meet with clients to discuss their expungeable offenses and petition.

After: After filing the petition, some client contact is necessary. Attorneys occasionally must go to court to complete proceedings.

Time: 5-10 hours

YOU WOULD ENJOY EXPUNCTION WORK IF:

- You want to work directly with clients.
- You are excited about eliminating barriers to opportunity in North Carolina.
- You want to volunteer but have limited or inconsistent time to do so.
- You want to learn more about re-entry and criminal justice reform.

PRO BONO IMPACT:

Individuals are often denied employment, housing, and other opportunities based on past involvement with the criminal justice system, including dismissed charges and long-ago convictions. Criminal record expunction is a vital piece to criminal justice reform and social mobility.

TRAINING + SUPPORT

We offer trainings to attorneys outside of their practice area. We also provide a tool kit with the necessary materials to take the case. The Advocacy Center staff provide ongoing assistance. Co-counsel is welcome and encouraged!

WHY EXPUNCTION PRO BONO?

“Working with folks to expunge their records has been a rewarding and heartwarming experience for me every time.” -Molly Morgan, Charles L. Morgan Jr. P.A.