Charlotte Center for Legal Advocacy and Legal Aid of North Carolina - Charlotte are grateful to host the first in-person Access to Justice Breakfast Fundraiser since 2019.

This longstanding tradition provides critical support for the year-round services provided by both legal services organizations.

Civil legal needs are basic needs.

As Partners in Justice, Charlotte Center for Legal Advocacy and Legal Aid of North Carolina-Charlotte help people facing issues of safety, housing and financial insecurity, and family stability.

1 in 3 Mecklenburg County residents is low-income.

71% of these residents experienced at least one civil legal problem last year.

Only 14% received legal help for their civil legal problem.

Proceeds for this event help more Charlotteans access legal solutions to barriers in employment, education, safety, housing, and other fundamental needs of life.
