

Required Screening/Evaluations
As of 7/1/2020

Required Screening/Evaluations	Disability Categories
	AU	DB	DF	DD	ED	HI	ID	MU	OI	OHI	SLD	SLI	TBI	VI
(2) SRB interventions to address academic/behavioral skills
(2) SRB interventions to address academic/functional skills
(2) SRB interventions to address academic skills
(2) SRB interventions to address behavioral/emotional skills
Adaptive behavior evaluation
Artic/fluency/language/voice/resonance evaluation
Artic/fluency/language/voice/resonance screening
Behavioral assessment related to autism
Audiological evaluation followed by otological, when appropriate
Audiological evaluation, including air/bone conduction testing; speech receptive testing with/without amplification, and impedance testing to determine the type and extent of hearing loss
Behavioral/emotional evaluation
Braille skills inventory and/or media assessment
Communication evaluation
Communication evaluation including receptive, expressive and augmentative skills
Educational evaluation
Functional vision assessment
Health screening
Hearing screening
Medical evaluation
Motor evaluation
Motor screening
Observation across settings
Ophthalmological or optometric evaluation
Otological evaluation
Psychological evaluation
Psychological evaluation for TBI
Psychological evaluation including cognitive/social-emotional measures
Psychological evaluation including intellectual evaluation
*Review of educational history/records
*Review of existing data
*Review of existing data/ documentation of systematic problem-solving process & observation data of core instruction
Review of medical history/records
Sensory processing evaluation
Social/developmental history
Speech/language evaluation -including language, semantics, and pragmatics
Speech/language evaluation
Speech/language screening
*Summary of conference(s) with parents
Vision screening

*These items are required pieces for specific disability categories. However, these data are existing data and do not require parental consent. This information must be documented on the eligibility worksheet.